ATTACHMENT TO NOTICE OF ALLOWABILITY

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 2, and 10-14 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to Claim 1, the prior art of record teaches many of the elements of the claimed invention, including an organic electroluminescent device comprising in the following order: a hole injection electrode; a first hole injection layer having a property of absorbing ultraviolet light and including a copper phthalocyanine; a second hole injection layer including a fluorocarbon; a light emitting layer; and, an electron injection electrode formed on the light emitting layer.

However, prior art does not teach or fairly suggest the device wherein said first hole injection layer is formed directly on said hole injection electrode, and wherein said second hole injection layer is formed directly on said first hole injection layer, in the manner required by Claim 1.

With respect to Claim 14, the prior art of record teaches many of the elements of the claimed invention, including a method of manufacturing an organic electroluminescent device comprising the steps of: forming a hole injection electrode; forming a first hole injection layer on the hole injection electrode, the first hole injection layer including a copper phthalocyanine and having a property of absorbing ultraviolet light; forming a second hole injection layer on the first hole injection layer by plasma chemical vapor deposition, the second hole injection layer including a fluorocarbon;

forming a light emitting layer above the second hole injection layer; and, forming an electron injection electrode on the light emitting layer.

However, prior art does not teach or fairly suggest the device wherein said first hole injection layer is formed directly on said hole injection electrode, and wherein said second hole injection layer is formed directly on said first hole injection layer, in the manner required by Claim 14.

Claims 2 and 10-13 are allowed by virtue of their dependency.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
